Eisenhower Meets With Cabinet Today

THURMONT, Md. (AP)—President Eisenhower meets with his Cabinet today at Camp David in the Catoctin Hills.

In the same wooded seclusion, with Marine sentries everywhere in the surrounding snow-covered forestland, Eisenhower met for two hours Monday with the National Security Council.

There was, as usual, no announcement of what came under discussion. This meeting of the nation's top security planning board, like today's Cabinet session, was the first Eisenhower has attended since his Sept. 24 heart attack in Denver.

Both groups met in Camp David's Laurel Lodge, a weather-beaten gray wooden building with green trim. The building is one of several on the remote mountain reservation maintained by the National Park Service and operated by the Navy for the occasional use of presidents beginning with Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Eisenhower planned to drive the 2 miles back to his Gettysburg, Pa., country estate immediately after today's Cabinet meeting.

He played bridge last night with Secretary of State Dulles, Secretary of Defense Wilson and Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey.

They were among the security council members who remained overnight after Monday's strategy-planning session—one that set a new fashion in transport for high governmental policy sessions.

Helicopter have been used before to ferry officials here and there—but not on Monday's scale. Four of the big "flying Bananas" dropped in on the brown-grassed field that serves as an airstrip for Camp David.

Out climbed Vice President Nixon and such other top officials as Dulles, Wilson, Humphrey and Chairman Lewis L. Strauss of the Atomic Energy Commission.

Wetzel, School Heads Confer At Lisbon

LISBON — State Rep. Clarence Wetzel met Monday afternoon at Lisbon High School to discuss school needs with representatives of Columbiana County schools.

Wetzel asked each representative for information on such topics as: projected enrollments, number of present classrooms, additional classrooms needed, amount of bonded indebtedness, and percentage of indebtedness compared to its 10-mill limitation.

Wetzel said he wanted the information so he could be prepared when school legislation comes up in the General Assembly.

About 10 public schools representatives, including James L. McBride, superintendent of rural schools, attended the meeting which followed a dinner at the Hotel Wick.

Supt. E. S. Kerr of Salem attended the session.

New Argentine Strikes Loom

Troops Guarantee 'Freedom To Work'

BUENOS AIRES (AP)—The 10-day-old Argentine provisional government of Maj. Gen. Pedro Aramburu moved swiftly today to meet a second threat by Peronista labor leaders. Troops moved out of their barracks to guarantee the "freedom to work," the government said.

The government warned both labor and management to keep the peace or be punished for "grave sabotage against the liberating revolution" that toppled Juan D. Peron from 10 years of dictatorship.

Unofficial reports said the old Peronista labor leadership, which appeared to have been discredited thoroughly last week when the government faced down an unsuccessful general strike, had furtively ordered another general walkout "in principle."

Other reports said railroad, metal and textile workers were threatening to strike.

An anti-Peronist labor leader, quoted in the Argentine press, said a strike "in principle" apparently would be a war of nerves designed to promote unrest among the people and thereby undermine the government.

This source said the workers would be in a technical state of strike even though staying at their jobs. But at a nod from their union leader—presumably acting on higher orders—they would drop their tools and walk out.

The secretive nature of the reported strike call appeared due to the fact that the old Peronista

Union Thanksgiving Service Arranged

Churches and congregations in the community will join in observing the annual Union Thanksgiving service Wednesday night at 7:30 in the Emmanuel Lutheran Church at 291 S. Broadway.

"A Change of Tune" will be the topic of Rev. David Mair, associate pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, who will be the principal speaker.

Rev. Mair will base his talk on Nehemiah 8:10 "... Do not be grieved for the joy of the Lord is your strength."

The Salem and Vicinity Ministerial Association is sponsoring the annual observance using the basic theme of "in gratitude to God for our abundance and our privileges to share with the hungry overseas."

Offerings at the service are used for world relief and to provide food for the needy in Europe and the Far East. The government provides $20 of surplus foods for every dollar donated by church members throughout the United States.

Participating in the service will be Rev. John Bauman, pastor of Emmanuel Lutheran Church; Rev. George Keister, pastor of Holy Trinity Lutheran Church; and Rev. R. J. Hunter, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

8 Complain Of Unsigned Literature

Grand Jury Probe Asked In Fairfield-Waterford Vote

The Columbiana County Election board today asked Prosecuting Attorney James L. MacDonald to conduct a grand jury investigation of circulation of alleged unsigned political literature in violation of the "Corrupt Practices" Act in the Nov. 8 election campaign in the Fairfield-Waterford School district.

The election board acted on a complaint signed by eight school district voters urging that "whatever action is deemed advisable" be taken in the alleged circulation of two sample ballots—one urging of certain candidates to the State Board of Education, County Board of Education and two-year and four-year terms on the Fairfield-Waterford board and the other urging approval of a $475,000 bond issue for a new high school in that district. (The school bonds lost.)

Frank R. O'Hanlon, election board clerk, said the complaint to the election board was signed by Edgar Bell, Alton D. Brinker, Edwin B. Dillon, Donald E. Evans, Raymond F. Fulton, Robert F. Cope and Howard Williamson, all of RD 2, Columbiana, and R. J. Firestone of RD 2, New Waterford.

Dated last Wednesday, the complaint was received through the mail yesterday, O'Hanlon said. He said the sample ballots in question were printed on colored paper as required by law, but bore only the name, "Fairfield-New Waterford Citizens Committee."

The Corrupt Practices Act requires all committees either supporting and opposing a candidate or issue to sign literature with the name of an individual as chairman, secretary-treasurer, or some other officer of the campaign committee.

The literature also may be signed by an individual, giving his post-office address, he added.

O'Hanlon said it is the first time in his memory that a grand jury investigation has been requested for such an alleged violation.

He said the law also requires a printer who turns out campaign literature to compel the customer to provide a legal signature for the printed matter. Under the law, a printer can be held equally responsible for illegal literature, O'Hanlon said.

A recount is scheduled Friday night at 7:30 in the election board office at East Liverpool as an aftermath of the bitter campaign in the Fairfield-Waterford district which centered around a school consolidation question.

Mrs. Margaret E. Cope, who apparently ran third in the school board race there for one of two two-year terms, asked for the new tabulation in two precincts.

The official count gave her 589

Reports Soviet Officials Killed

5 Georgian Leaders Executed For Treason

LONDON (AP)—The Tiflis (Tbilisi) radio announced today five former security officials in the Soviet Georgian republic have been executed for high treason and other crimes against the Soviet Union.

The broadcast did not link those executed specifically with Lavrenty P. Beria, Soviet security and police boss purged and executed in 1953 for alleged treason. However, Beria got his start in the Georgian security organization and kept tight control over it even after he went to Moscow. After his purge, the axe started falling right and left among Georgian officials.

The Tiflis broadcast identified those executed only by their last names. Radio monitors here said a sixth official might have been included in the group executed. This was not certain, due to the indistinctness of the broadcast.

Those definitely identified as executed were: Rukhadze, former minister of internal security and one-time chief of the prosecution department in the Ministry of Internal Affairs. He apparently was the man mentioned in a Moscow broadcast shortly after Beria's downfall as having been arrested on charges of persecuting innocent workers and plotting to arouse dissatisfaction among the Soviet people.

The health awards were given by the Kellogg Co. through Ohio State University and General Motors presented the safety award under the auspices of the university.

The Hanover Township Club is a mixed club. No. 16 is a boys' group, and Try, Try Again a girls' club.

LEAVES HOSPITAL — Mrs. Ann Woodward, right, is photographed for the first time since she shot and killed her husband, millionaire William Woodward, in the belief that he was a prowler. Mrs. Woodward is accompanied by her attorney, Murray Gurfein, as she leaves Doctors Hospital in New York City.

Question Widow For Three Hours

Police Still Hold To Accident Theory In Woodward Shooting

MINEOLA, N.Y. (AP)—Mrs. William Woodward Jr., haggard and tearful, went through a three-hour police quiz Monday night after leaving a hospital for the first time since Oct. 30, when she shot her millionaire husband to death.

The 39-year-old widow, Ann, broke into uncontrollable sobs three times during the questioning. She stated again that the shooting was a tragic accident.

After the interrogation, authorities unofficially let it be known that it still looks like an accident to them. However, Nassau County Dist. Atty. Frank A. Gulotta and Detective Chief Stuyvesant Pinnell said they would make no official comment "in view of the fact that all evidence will be presented to the grand jury."

Mrs. Woodward's lawyer Murray I. Gurfein has asked that the grand jury hear her story, a request which must by law be granted. The lawyer said Mrs. Woodward wants to testify and will waive immunity, making it possible to use her testimony should any case develop against her.

The widow, dressed in black, emerged late in the day from Doctors Hospital in New York City, where she had been under treatment for grief and hysteria.

Flanked by her physician and Gurfein, she moved slowly and with bowed head through a curious crowd that had waited to see her come out.

Her chauffeured sedan sped her from the hospital to county police headquarters here on Long Island. After three hours she left the building and had to be helped to the car. Back in New York City, she was half-carried by her lawyer and doctor into her town house on Manhattan's fashionable East Side.

Her police questioners said she was "pitiful" but declined to take advantage of a standing offer to postpone further questioning. She

Army Moves To Preserve Ramos Regime

Action Follows Cafe's Reported Intention Of Regaining Office

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (AP)—Brazil's Congress and army acted swiftly today to preserve the regime of provisional President Getulio Vargas against a bid by Joao Cafe Filho to resume the presidency.

By sizeable majorities after an all-night debate, both houses of Congress adopted a resolution that Cafe should remain out of office until Congress decided otherwise. The national regime "now is menaced as before," said the resolution in a reference to unsettled political conditions which resulted in Ramos' installation by a bloodless army coup Nov. 10.

Held Incommunicado

The army held Cafe incommunicado in his apartment in the fashionable Copacabana district. Troops surrounded the building and barred all visitors. Telephone calls to the apartment were interrupted.

Troops also guarded key government buildings but Rio remained calm.

Friends of the ex-President prepared to ask the Supreme Court for an order assuring his safety.

(News dispatches going abroad were being censored. Associated Press dispatches from the capital were being relayed via Sao Paulo, the big industrial center southwest of Rio along the coast.)

Cafe took a leave of absence from the presidency Nov. 8 after a heart attack, turning the job over to Chamber of Deputies President Carlos Coimbra Da Luz.

Engineered Bloodless Coup

The change was accompanied by rising suspicion that Cafe and Luz were planning a coup to prevent the Jan. 31 inauguration of President-elect Juscelino Kubitschek, political heir of the late dictator Getulio Vargas. To forestall such a coup, the war minister, Gen. Henrique Teixeira Lott, engineered a bloodless army coup of his own which ousted Luz and installed Ramos, the president of the Senate.

Cafe, who stepped from the vice presidency after Vargas committed suicide in August 1954, was released from the hospital Monday after an examination by eight doctors. He promptly fired off a message to Ramos and both houses of Congress that "the motive of my disability which led me to remove myself from the exercise of the presidency of the republic having ceased, I am resuming for all purposes these functions."

Both the army and Congress were ready for Cafe, since such action by him had been rumored for several days. Troops were rushed to key government buildings as bystanders along the streets applauded. Guards also closed in on Cafe's home to keep him inside.

The resolution to prevent his return was already before the Chamber of Deputies, which stepped up action. The bill was approved in the lower house 179-94 after midnight, then rushed to the Senate. The senators sat through the night to complete debate this morning, then approved the resolution 35-16.

Polio Cases Show Big Drop Over 1954

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Only seven new polio cases were reported in Ohio last week, compared with seven times that number for the corresponding period last year. The figures were announced today by Dr. Ralph E. Dwork, state health director.

Last week's cases brought the total for the year to date to 1,239, compared with 2,291 for 1954.

Dr. Dwork, who last week attended an American Public Health Assn. meeting in Kansas City where the nationwide polio situation was discussed by top expert, said:

"The polio figures seem to indicate there is a very definite nationwide feeling the Salk vaccine is successful.

"How long one shot will remain effective is not known, but some of the first persons to whom Dr. Jonas Salk gave one injection more than two years ago still have measurable protection against polio."

Dr. Dwork said those early cases were not given booster shots because Dr. Salk wanted to find out how long one shot would remain effective.

"Every child should get the first shot," Dr. Dwork advocated, "because we know one shot, like most of Ohio's schoolchildren got, is effective."

He said all laboratories making the vaccine have increased production and there will by next year be enough available for every person under 20 years of age.

Dr. Dwork also told how manufacturers had eliminated problems in making the vaccine.

It was found the live virus had to be killed immediately after filtration to prevent a physical change that prevented killing of all the virus, Dr. Dwork said.

In some cases, there was a time lapse of several weeks between filtration and inactivation of the virus, and this led to trouble, as viruses were not killed, Dr. Dwork said.

Thanksgiving Rites At Lisbon Planned

The program also will include music by the Methodist choir, a responsive reading and a Scripture reading. The offering will be given to the Christian Rural Overseas Program.

The Lisbon Ministerial Association made arrangements for the service.

Dillon Dam Project Money Not Available

ZANESVILLE, Ohio (AP)—Federal funds needed to resume work on the nearby Dillon Dam flood control project probably won't be available this year, representatives of Muskingum River communities have been told.

But, said Brig. Gen. Emerson C. Itschmer, the project is not hopeless. Itschmer, assistant chief engineer for the Civil Work Administration, said it is the most needed flood control project today.

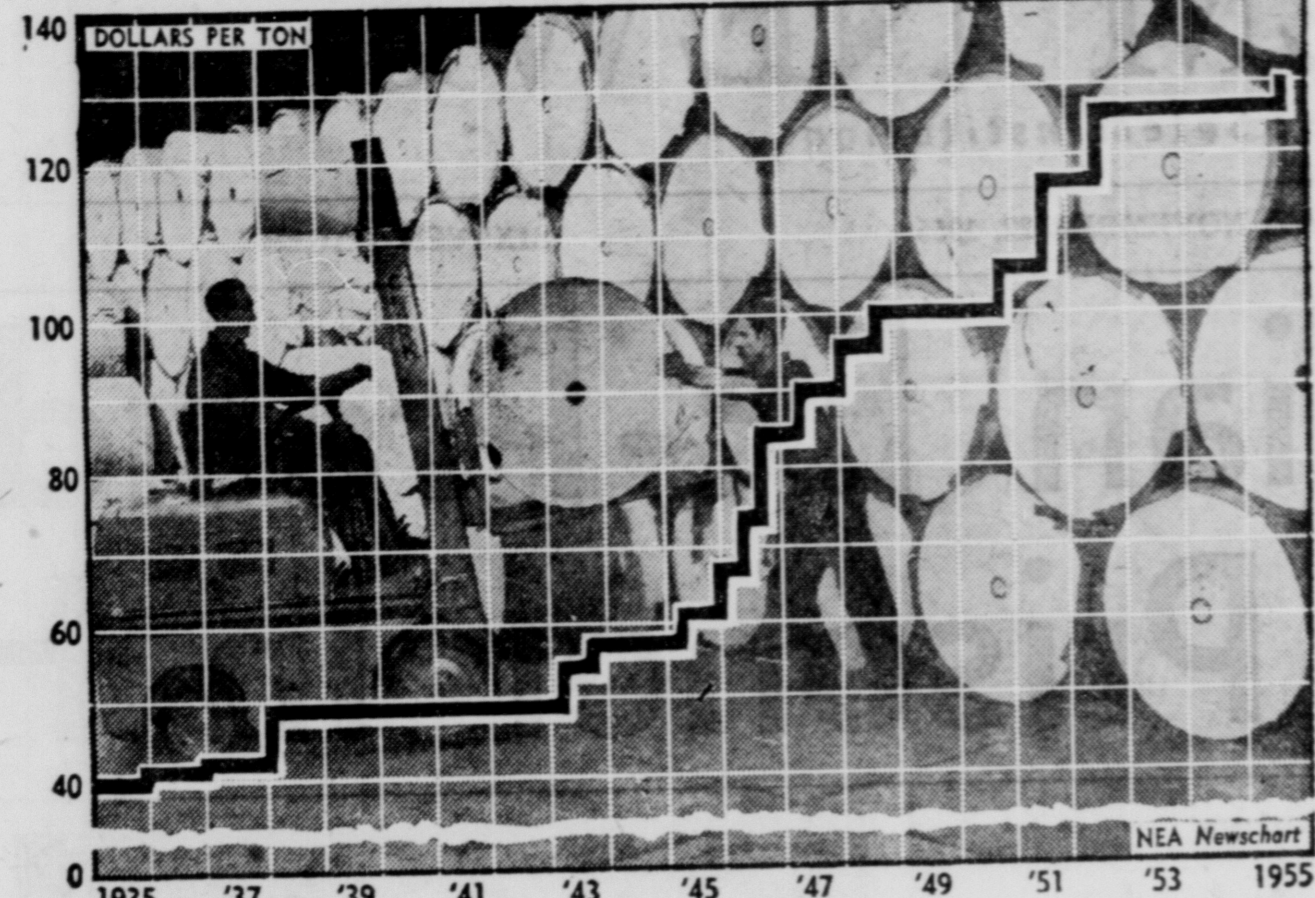

The general spoke yesterday before representatives from Zanesville, Marietta, McConnelsville and smaller communities along the Muskingum River.

The speech was preceded by a tour of the dam site, six miles northwest of here, on the Licking River. The Licking joins the Muskingum at Zanesville.

The tour was headed by U. S. Rep. John E. Henderson (R-Ohio) who is seeking continued federal aid to resume project work. The project has been stalled since 1952, lacking federal appropriations.

About nine million dollars has been spent so far, mostly for fills and bridges, in connection with relocation of Baltimore and Ohio Railroad tracks, and for dikes. Col. G. T. Darby, Corps of Engineers, Huntington, W. Va., said another 20 million dollars is needed to complete the project.

FIRE DAMAGES PLANT
McARTHUR, Ohio (AP)—Fire Chief Lloyd Dill estimated loss at $50,000 in a fire that swept through the engine room of the McArthur Brick Co., plant here yesterday.

HOW PAPER COSTS HAVE GONE UP—The cost of Canadian newspaper paper, used by most U.S. publishers, went up $4 a ton Nov. 1, bringing the cost to $130 a ton. That's delivered at New York. Publishers in other eastern seaport cities will pay $131 a ton. The hike adds something over 30 million dollars a year to the cost of newspaper publishing. Chart above shows graphically the steady rise in price during the past 20 years. A metropolitan newspaper with a daily (except Sunday) circulation of 300,000 will use 40,000 tons a year. At the new price of $131, that's 5.24 million dollars. A paper of about 137,000 circulation, with Sunday editions, will use about 65,000 tons or about eight and a half million dollars' worth.

Gasoline Spilled In Lisbon Accident

Lisbon — An accident at the Morris Gas Co. bulk station, just west of Jackson St., caused a large amount of gasoline to pour from two big gasoline storage tanks here Monday about 1 p.m.

A slag truck driven by Cliff Westover of Elkton backed up beneath the tanks and tore off a valve and hose connection to the tanks, causing the gas to flow into a big depression. The slag on the truck was to be used to level off the ground underneath the tanks so trucks could load without difficulty.

Past thinking by Ray Lewis and Earl Merrick, who were in Lewis' office across the street, and Westover averted a further loss of gasoline. They fashioned a plug from a four-by-four plank and drove it into the hole opened by loss of the valve.

The fire department arrived on the scene and washed the gasoline down a nearby drain. One tank holds 15,000 gallons and the other 10,000 gallons of gas.

Community Tree In Lisbon Is Erected

Three smaller trees will be set up on each side of the big one. The Kiwanis Club has been sponsoring the Christmas tree project since 1938. Kiwanians G. C. Rauch and Deane Beck were in charge of the tree selection.

A streamer, with the words, "Peace on Earth, Good Will Toward Men," also will decorate the square.

Thanksgiving Eve Service Is Set

Three Churches Join In Evening's Program

LEETONIA — The Annual Community Thanksgiving Eve service, sponsored by the Methodist, Presbyterian and Lutheran Churches, will be held in the Presbyterian Church Wednesday evening at 7:30.

"Giving Thanks" is the subject of the sermon to be presented by Rev. T. P. Laughner, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church. The Rev. James B. Moore of Alliance will conduct the service, assisted by the Rev. Robert E. Ferguson of the Methodist Church.

The special music furnished by the host church will include a harp-organ duet by Mrs. Edward Mellinger and Miss Ruth Prior; an anthem by the choir; and a duet by Mrs. Wayne Raub and Mrs. Harry Steele. The offering of the evening will be sent to the American Bible Society.

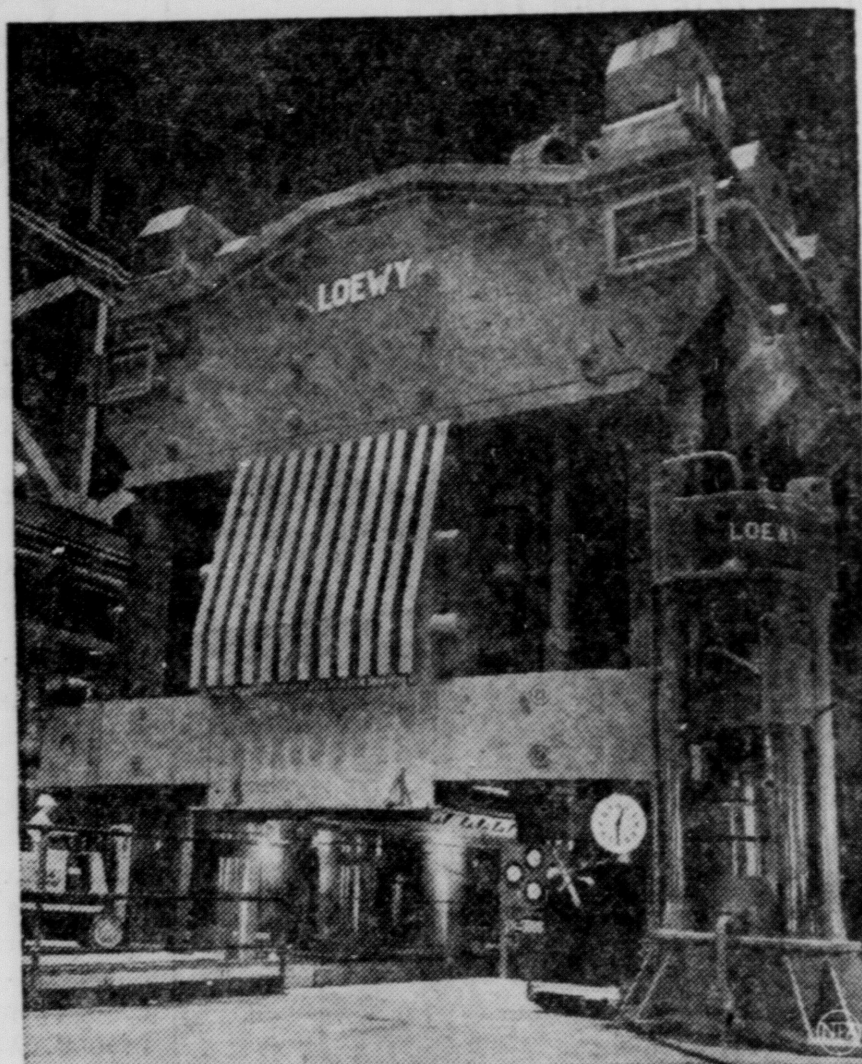

Mrs. Rosa Cox spent the weekend with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sturgeon and family of Elkton.

SIX TABLES OF 500 were in play at the card party sponsored by D. Wallace Rebekah Lodge Saturday evening. Prize winners were: Mrs. Harry Klitz, Miss Mabel Middleton, and Mrs. Charles Kennedy. The turkeys were won by Mrs. Rose Sierra of Warren and Mrs. Louis Plummer of North Lima. The next card party will be Saturday, Dec. 3.

Edward Gotthardt Sr. and Edward Gotthardt Jr. visited Mrs. Lillie Gotthardt at Dennison on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Leonard visited his nephew, Louis Johnson who is a patient in St. Elizabeth Hospital, Youngstown on Sunday. During the regular meeting of the Village Council Wednesday, authorization was made for the purchase of 12 safety helmets and six coats for the fire department. Also at the meeting council President Vic Hedl presented a report from the engineering firm of Burgess and Niple in regards to the sewage disposal plant.

Action was taken to pass ordinances regarding certain stop streets in the village. It was reported at the meeting that $105 was taken from parking meters during the past week.

It took 17 months to assemble the press, which weighs 10,605 tons. Some 48 feet above the operating floor and more than 60 feet below it, the press is suspended in a 100-foot-deep pit.

Aims At Pepper Box, Kills Best Friend

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—A Knoxville man was shot and killed Monday night by a friend who was aiming at a pepper box atop his head. Police said the shooting came as the climax to a drinking party.

Dead is Raymond V. Baker, 40, with a pistol bullet wound in the head.

Knox County police arrested his friend, James Bowerman, also 40, and charged him with manslaughter.

Capt. Estel Wrinkle said Bowerman and Bill McCall, 30, a witness to the shooting, gave this account:

Bowerman and Baker went to a tavern Monday after they got off work at an iron company and drank beer. Later they went to McCall's home and drank a pint of moonshine whisky.

Then the trio went to Bowerman's rural home. While there, Bowerman showed the men his fishing equipment, rifles, a shotgun and a 32-caliber foreign-made pistol.

A discussion arose as to whether the pistol would shoot. Baker picked up a plate from a kitchen table and Bowerman shot a hole in it.

Baker placed a potato on his head, but Bowerman refused to shoot it because it was "too flat."

Baker then picked up a black pepper box, set it on his head and told Bowerman:

"Be sure and don't miss that pepper box."

Bowerman backed off about 10 feet, took aim and fired.

Baker slumped into a chair with a bullet wound in the head.

Coroner Carl Hickam said the two men were the best of friends.

Salk Vaccine Works

Preliminary reports that a single shot of Salk vaccine reduced paralytic polio this year by 50 to 80 per cent is heartening news.

In the eye of the Public Health Service, it is a complete vindication of the vaccine.

It is especially reassuring in the light of an unfortunate early experience with some batches of the vaccine.

But with the revision and tightening of government safety standards on production, confidence has been restored and the fight against the crippling disease is making rapid strides ahead.

While second and third shots are expected to show even more amazing results, there are indications that a change in procedure for doling out the vaccine may be in the making.

Sentiment is growing to give single shots immediately to as many children as possible, rather than giving a series of three shots to a smaller number of children.

Among the experts, there is a difference of opinion on this point.

But on the basis of what is known to date, it would seem feasible to give at least minimum protection to as great a number as possible on the assumption that additional doses of the vaccine will become available by the time second and third shots are prescribed.

Science Will Find An Answer

It is inconceivable that any human being in possession of his mental faculties could commit a crime so cold-blooded as that which took the lives of 44 aboard the ill-fated United Air Lines plane Nov. 1.

And yet a 23-year-old Denver forger, John Gilbert Graham, is accused of and reportedly has confessed to the monstrous act of insuring his mother for $37,500 and then sending her aboard the plane with luggage in which he had placed dynamite attached to a battery with timing mechanism.

It was inevitable that the perpetrator of this wanton murder would be apprehended, but no one can restore the lives of the innocent people who were the pawns in this greed for money.

All that can be salvaged from the tragedy now is the development of detection devices to prevent a recurrence.

Fortunately, history does not offer too much precedent for this sort of dastardly being, but for a while at least there is sure to be a certain uneasiness on the part of airline officials and passengers alike.

We are confident science will come up with an answer to the knotty problem of coping with a demented mind without having to resort to a search of luggage.

The air lines have an impressive safety record and it is unfortunate that their amazing control over mechanical failure should have to be marred by an act of sabotage beyond their control.

Self-Sorters

Installation of postal mail bags in lobbies of big office buildings so that persons mailing letters will sort their own mail is one of those minor steps which when added with others results in an intricate civilization such as ours.

Ever since the first caveman took the limb of a tree to pry a rock out of the path to his cave, mankind has been adding machines to ease his work. This has brought us to the present stage of automation with its almost unfathomable electronic gadgets.

We have electric brains which operate automatic clothes and dish washers, and automobile power brakes at which the driver need barely more than wiggle a toe to operate. Now by the simple device of placing the three bags in office buildings the Postoffice Department has cut down on the arduous task of sorting some of the mail according to "local," "out-of-town" and "airmail."

The postal system often is criticized for slow mail deliveries and an annual deficit. The new change, which Postmaster General Summerfield says will speed deliveries and save $600,000 a year in sorting costs, in the latest effort to reduce such criticism.

Perils Of Progress

Progress is a wonderful thing but every forward step brings new problems to take the place of the old. A case in point is in the food stores which have grown from markets to super markets to super super markets.

If the trend continues it will not be long until the food stores will be so huge that shoppers will need motorized carts, traffic lights and maps to get around.

Of course, if it comes to this, traffic congestion and collisions are bound to result and a market traffic patrol system will be inevitable. That will be the time to start hunting again for the little corner grocery.

Conversation among women would probably be cut in half if they said only things of importance.

Dulles Notifies World West Will Stand Firm

The Four-Power Conference is, in effect, still going on. The address by U.S. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles—delivered on his return here Friday after it was approved and authorized by President Eisenhower—is an integral part of the current negotiations. The words spoken now could become the basis for a four-power agreement in a few months.

Lawrence

There is no rule in diplomacy which says negotiations must be carried on only by foreign ministers in personal conferences. In fact, a direct appeal to the public opinion of the world, usually characterized as "the propaganda battle," is in some respects more powerful than what is said in face-to-face conversations.

Every word of the Dulles speech has been examined already in Moscow and will be re-examined many times by the Soviet rulers and their experts. It will be studied to arrive at a decision as to how far the points made are likely to swing favorable opinion, not only on this side of the iron curtain but on the other side as well.

The Soviet government, therefore, cannot afford to ignore the effective points made by Secretary Dulles.

THERE IS, INDEED, some reason to believe that the Soviet government went to the second Geneva conference under a complete misapprehension which now, unfortunately, has been dispelled. The Kremlin thought the smiles at the first Geneva conference meant that the West was willing to make peace at any price and that the Western Allies would not stick together. In a sense, the second Geneva conference was a testing-out of the solidarity of the Allies and the extent to which their foreign ministers would be willing to go to get an agreement on vital issues. The key paragraph in the Dulles address was the following:

"It would have been easy to make some apparent agreements with the Soviet Union—but they would have been without real content. They would have given an illusion of a meeting of minds, where none in fact existed. The three Western powers stood steadfastly against that kind of a performance. In doing so, they showed their confidence in their own strength and in the steadfastness of their own people. Therefore, this conference may have improved the prospects for real agreements in the future."

TRANSLATING THAT language into political realities in the United States, this is how it might have read:

"Don't be misled, Mr. Molotov. The Democrats in our country are not forcing us into a peace-at-any-price position. Neither Stevenson, nor Harriman, nor Kefauver is going to attack the Republicans and blame them for failure at Geneva. If they did, our public opinion would not support them. Our political parties are united as never before in seeking a real peace in Europe, and you are blocking it. You can't stand on that position very long, so you must come to an agreement with us."

As for Britain and France, Dulles cannot undertake to speak for them, but their foreign ministers also might have said privately the same thing—that the opposition parties in their respective countries aren't going to make political capital out of a so-called "failure" at Geneva.

Perhaps the Soviets had to try out their tactics at the second Geneva conference before really getting down to business in a third Geneva conference. So it is of transcendent importance that, in the United States, Great Britain and France, interpreters of the first and second Geneva conferences do not play into Soviet hands by trying to blame Dulles, MacMillan and Pinay for an alleged "failure." In fact, it is a time to congratulate them for their steadfastness and for their ability to perceive the Soviet game and resist it.

THERE IS NOTHING new in the points made by Dulles except the significant way in which he restates them immediately after an important conference with the Russians.

The world has been told now that the Western governments are willing to sit down face to face with the Soviets and talk things out.

It also has been emphasized that readiness to talk and to smile and to evince a conciliatory spirit does not mean surrender of basic principles or a compromise of any kind with evil things.

There is no room for compromise as between slavery and freedom—and that's the issue for the peoples still held by force of arms by our wartime ally even though the war ended more than ten years ago.

How many months or years can Soviet Russia prolong World War II and keep the world from achieving peace? How long will the peoples of the countries affected be likely to remain passive? The fires of revolution are being kindled, and the discontented masses in the satellite states will be the first to fan the flames.

There are men in the councils of the Soviet government who know all this very well and fear it.

TRAVELERS RETURNING from Russia, of course say they didn't see evidences of incipient revolution there. These are never visible, nor are uprisings advertised in advance. But the ferment underneath the surface goes on rescue of the people, as has happened since the rescue of the people, as has happened many times in other areas of the globe when tyranny and oppression have run their course.

Soviet Russia faces a dangerous choice between inaction—which means internal trouble—and making some sort of agreement with the West that will give back to the West German people their East German kinsmen under a single government and bring also some basis for the recovery of their independence by the satellite nations.

It is an inexorable cycle that lies ahead. A third Geneva conference may find the Kremlin more tractable.

Certainly the Dulles speech starts a new series of moves designed to convince Moscow that the West will not recede but will insist on a truly peaceful setup in Europe before the much-talked-about "peaceful coexistence" of two different ideological systems can really begin.

Why They're Thankful

By EDWARD MCGIRE

NEW YORK

It's doubtful that Betty Lou Keim will have to wait as long before reading references to her as "the former stage and screen star" as the Brooklyn Dodgers did for their first World Series championship.

Betty Lou, as you may or may not know, is only 16 years old, is a big hit in Broadway's "A Roomful of Roses," and is scheduled to repeat her role in a movie version.

Of Betty Lou, the following bit of conversation was overheard at a recent after-theater party when applause greeted her arrival: "Imagine," said one middle-aged actress to another, "being 16 and famous!" "Hm," he companion countered, "imagine being 16!" which would indicate that Betty Lou is already on her way to being a celebrity, an angle that brings Jules Alberti into the picture.

Alberti's business—that of Endorsements, Inc.—handles more national celebrities for more advertised products than any other organization in the world and he estimated at a luncheon the other day that Miss Keim has a long and successful career as an entertainer ahead.

THE CASUAL REMARK. "Well, we've got a lot to be thankful for," brought from him the following comment, and, since then authorized statements from many of our national celebrities on what this Thanksgiving means to them: "This Thanksgiving," said Alberti, "is one for all the peoples of the world to rejoice. Personally, I am thankful for a lessening of world tension and a greater return to churchgoing by more people, our smoothly functioning government and our encouragingly prosperous economy."

Asked by Alberti "What are you especially thankful for this Thanksgiving?" the following celebrities replied:

WALTER ALSTON, manager of the Brooklyn Dodgers: "I'm grateful for a great team, wonderful employers, the loyal fans—and our first world championship!"

GERTRUDE BERG: "My two families—real and fictional—are thriving in their 27th year. What better to be thankful for?"

MEL ALLEN: "I am thankful for being allowed to be a part of the sports picture which has aided so much in making America strong and free."

BILL HAYES: "I'm thankful for two things—doing what I enjoy most in the world, singing, and for a guy named 'Davy Crockett'."

ARTHUR FIEDLER: "For my good health, my family and friends, for living in this country and doing the work I most enjoy, I am deeply thankful."

JACK FLECK, National Open Golf Champion: "This 1955 holiday finds me with many, many things to be grateful for, but uppermost to me is the good health of myself and my family and the opportunity to play golf."

GLADYS SWARTHOUT: "I'm thankful for being able to meet my radio and TV audiences in person regularly on my national concert tours."

LIBERACE: "I'm most grateful for the chance I'm having to bring music to people. They're the two things I love most."

JACK BARRY: "I'm thankful that television rewards will keep me off the panel of 'Life Begins at Eighty'."

GUY LOMABRO: "I'm thankful for good health, a swell wife, nice brothers and sisters, and the privilege of being an American."

SONJA HENIE: "I am deeply thankful for having wonderful parents who inspired me and enabled me as a small child to develop the 'wings on my feet' which led to a happy and successful career."

RAYMOND MASSEY: "With my role in 'I Spy,' I have finally escaped the Abe Lincoln tag. That's what I'm grateful for this year."

ARTHUR MURRY: "I'm thankful for the healthy, tireless, rugged souls in this country. Otherwise, who would do the mambo?"

ROBERT Q. LEWIS: "I'm thankful that I didn't open that grocery store that a producer told me to, years ago."

MAXIE ROSENBLUM: "I was down and out when I was offered a role in the 'Joe Palooka' series. I'll always be thankful for that opportunity, which was a turning point in my career."

MARIAN MARLOWE: "I'm thankful to Arthur Godfrey for the chance of a lifetime and to the American public who accepted me so wonderfully."

JACK DEMPSEY: "What am I thankful for? The American youths of today and tomorrow whose physical standards are quite a bit above the lads of my day."

PAUL WHITEHEAD: "I guess I'll always be grateful to the memory of George Gershwin and thankful for the continuing crown placed on my head by the American public—'The Dean of Modern Music'."

Cecil Chapman: "I believe that American women are the world's best-dressed, and I am thankful that I have been able to contribute to the achievement of this distinction."

PAT O'BRIEN: "I am thankful for God's continuing blessings over our household—for our large family, that we are all together, and that we are blessed with good health."

BETTY LOU KEIM: "I'm thankful to Guthrie McClintic for making possible my exciting role in 'A Roomful of Roses'."

FLORIAN ZABACH: "I'm thankful that I have been able to continue playing the violin after my hands were so badly burned in that hotel fire in Chicago."

Conservatism's Revival

By RAYMOND MOLEY

The word "conservative" is becoming respectable again, just as the good old word "liberal" has lost all meaning since its theft by the left wing.

Perhaps people are more willing to call themselves conservative because they have witnessed the great comeback of the Conservative party in Britain. Perhaps also they are turning to some of the tried values of the past because they are disillusioned by the experience of this country with 20 years of radical experimentation.

Like most changes in trends of thinking, this revival is most marked among the young men and women of the country. Last week I was told in the course of a visit to Princeton that it is estimated that while 80 per cent of the faculty is "liberal," most of the students show definite conservative tendencies.

Harvard and several other collegiate institutions have conservative clubs.

Young men near the center of the administration in Washington are using the word "conservative" to describe the policies which they believe the President has instituted in government. In two excellent speeches about the economic policies of the Eisenhower regime by Vice President Nixon and Gavriel Hauge, the President's economic adviser, the word "conservative" is used without apology.

There has now appeared a new TONAL REVIEW, which is dedicated to conservative policies. This newcomer is the child of William F. Buckley, Jr., who four years ago violently upset his traditionally self-assured alma mater with his book "God and Man at Yale."

His contention was that the faculty was not only offering left wing economic views, but was pretty free-thinking in dealing with religion. In the babel of tongues that ensued everybody lost his sense of dignity except the youthful Buckley. In fact, his decorum was a refreshing contrast to the violent conduct of some of the elders in New Haven.

Buckley has unquestioned courage. His defiance of the Yale dons proved that. The effort to start a new magazine proves it once more. Perhaps only his youth blinds him to the fact that arduous and bitter years are ahead.

The Buckley magazine is attractively printed, well planned so far as departmentalization is concerned and is staffed with a number of excellent and experienced writers whose soundness of thinking cannot be questioned. It is worth watching and reading.

The readers of NATIONAL REVIEW must be patient, however, because it takes a while to develop an editorial mechanism which can put a fine cutting edge on its literary output. It is not easy to write opinion that people will read with ease and some of the pieces in NATIONAL REVIEW will prove that fact to the reader.

The idea behind this publishing venture is right; those in charge have sincerity and character and, above all, they truly represent a young generation which is looking for something better than synthetic socialism, which has been the vogue these many years.

Most monstrous crime in generations, the killing of 44 airplane passengers including the perpetrator's own mother, for her slot-machine insurance, points up again a national scene in which frightful behavior by the young is rampant; and raises anew the question: What causes it? Not a day passes without countless stories recording brutalities and violence among teenagers and those just below or above that category. It is clear that the young are no longer horrified by violent routines and it is, to a great extent, due to the fact, kids today come up in an age when crime patterns are dishd out to them as top entertainment.

From the day a child sees its first fairwave or movie-house screen, it gets a diet of brutal procedures, even from heroes. . . . There is hardly an airwave or movie encounter between here and villain in which the former doesn't slug the latter into insensibility and then, pick him up unconscious from the floor and slug him again. ## Authorities Keep 'Hands Off' In Perfect Circle Violence

NEW CASTLE, Ind. (AP)—The governor's office and the Henry County sheriff were keeping hands off today after four Perfect Circle Corp., nonstrikers and a neighbor of a fifth reported windows shattered by shotgun blasts.

No one was injured by any of the shots.

Gov. George Craig's executive secretary, Horace M. Coats, conferred with Adj. Gen. Harold A. Doherty at Indianapolis and then announced the window-breaking incidents "don't justify any emergency action by the state."

The National Guard pulled out its last patrol last week but left an observer team in the city and kept one company on alert for possible duty. The Guard had moved into New Castle Oct. 6, a day after a riot in which eight strikers and nonstrikers were wounded.

The office of Sheriff Robert Padgett told one worker who reported a window shot, officer would be sent out. The sheriff had said previously his staff is too small to try to control violence in the 17-week old strike.

Officials of the CIO United Auto Workers said they had no knowledge of the shooting incidents. The union is pledged to nonviolence in the strike, which now is restricted to Perfect Circle's foundry at New Castle.

Roy Turner, 48, New Castle, a 26-year employee, and Gerald Harvey, Sulphur Springs, a foundry supervisor, reported picture windows blasted at their homes. Herbert Owens and Andy Hale, who live at the edge of New Castle, also said windows were shot out at their homes.

At Cambridge City, in Wayne County, a window at the home of Charles Sands was shot out. Sands has no connection with Perfect Circle, but his next-door neighbor, Howard Covalt, works in the foundry.

Deputy Sheriff H. D. McCann said he assumed the shot was intended for Covalt's house. The two houses are almost identical.

Union and company spokesmen were to meet in Chicago today to resume negotiations which have been in recess since Nov. 9. The UAW demands for a union shop at the foundry snagged talks then.

The UAW struck July 25 over demands for a union shop, layoff pay and a 21-cent wage package. The company has offered at 10-cent hourly pay increase.

Besides the foundry here, the company's main plant at Hagers town and two small plants at Richmond were involved in the strike. Nonstrikers at the three other plants petitioned for decertification elections and last month rejected the UAW as bargaining agent.

All four plants have been operating with nonstriking workers.

Ohio Not Required To Sign Road Pact

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio is not required to sign motor vehicle reciprocity pacts with other states, the Ohio Attorney General's office has told the Second District Court of Appeals.

The Appellate Court gave Ohio the choice of signing a new pact with Michigan or explaining why it would not. Two Michigan trucking firms had asked the court to compel Ohio to sign a new agreement exempting Michigan trucks from Ohio's axle-mile tax.

Will Study Ohio's Mental Health Needs

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Co-chairmen of the Governor's Committee on Mental Health today set Dec. 6 for its next meeting to study Ohio's mental health needs and resources.

A committee spokesman said the group may set dates for public hearings at its next session.

The committee, headed by Dr. John D. Porterfield, director of the department of mental hygiene and correction, and Atty. Sol Morton Isaac of Columbus, has set up 14 subcommittees.

These groups are to study existing needs, existing facilities, cost, prevention and publication, government framework, personnel and training, special problems, legal problems, education, research, historical development, background material, mental defectives, public information and public hearings.

"People who require hospitalization must get it promptly," the co-chairmen said in a prepared statement, "and intensive treatment must be made available."

"But others need help short of hospitalization, and they too must be able to find it before their problems become too acute. For others, the major need is post-hospitalization care, to assist in readjustment to community life."

Expect Verdict Today In 2 Shooting Deaths

MOUNT VERNON, Ohio (AP)—Knox County Coroner Dr. C. L. Harmer says he expects to render a verdict today in the shooting deaths of a divorced couple.

The body of Mark Longfellow, 28, a Mount Vernon mailman, was found yesterday on a road about a mile from the farm home where his former wife, Jean, 22, was shot to death. The farm is about seven miles east of here.

Sheriff's Deputy Ralph Peairs said he believed Longfellow shot his ex-wife, then killed himself. The bodies were taken to Columbus for autopsies.

Hundreds Of Wild Ducks Killed In Oil Slick

MICHIGAN CITY, Ind. (AP) — Hundreds of wild ducks met disaster Monday when they alighted in an oil slick on the surface of Lake Michigan off the Indiana shoreline. Many died in the water after breathing or drinking the oil. Others, their feathers oil-coated, were unable to fly. A number paddled to shore where they floundered helplessly. Some were attacked by terns and rats.

James Schendel, head of the LaPorte County Council of Conservation Clubs sent out a call for members and residents of the area to collect the surviving ducks and care for them.

He urged that they be taken home, cleaned with a mild detergent solution, and kept warm for a day or so before being released.

The source of the oil slick, about 15 miles long between Ogden Dunes and Michigan City, was a mystery. One conservationist suggested that it might have been jettisoned by a foreign ship. U. S. law forbids oil dumping in Great Lakes waters.

Inside Labor

By Victor Riesel

Strategists of both parties have been running secret polls — and are convinced that more women will vote in 1956 than in previous years. And perhaps will cast more ballots than the men. The ladies, therefore, may well determine who will be the next president of the U.S.

Never let anyone tell you that labor leaders are allergic to the ladies — or their votes. So, as usual, the unions' political educational committees are far ahead of the major parties in a new methodical drive to convince the women — directly, or through their husbands and even through their teenage children — to vote labor's way and for labor's presidential candidate in the fall of '56.

With characteristic organization techniques, union leaders are preparing to hire full-time women's political directors for all AFL-CIO state committees.

THESE WOMEN will work under the AFL's national women's director, the attractive Mrs. Margaret Thornburgh. Already, the AFL in Texas and Oregon have full-time women political chiefs — Doris Cates of Texas, who has some 500,000 unionists and their families among whom to work, and Zoe Wilson up in Oregon.

Their work is typical. They're constantly touring their states, setting up committees and preparing "family participation" parleys. They are whipping together a machine which will swing into action for labor's political allies both in inner Democratic party battles and the general election for Congress and the presidency.

These women are real politicians. They work hard. They have central direction from Mrs. Thornburgh in Washington, who has prepared a special "get-the-ladies" kit which leaves nothing to chance.

UNTIL EACH STATE gets its labor's political action director for women, the AFL's Mrs. Thornburgh and her CIO colleague, Esther Murray, are stumping the country — skipping very few big or small cities. Nor are they missing any special techniques.

In one Ohio community the teenagers had a dance scheduled. The youngsters suddenly discovered that public dance halls required that parents accompany minors to such rock-and-roll shindigs. They cancelled the social. Along came Jim Carey's International Union of Electrical Workers and offered the union hall, and chaparones. The kids rocked-and-rolled. And told their mothers.

This makes friends. This makes votes.

A FEW WEEKS AGO the Jersey CIO decided to blast a state health official with charges that "a disproportionate share" of Salk antipolio vaccine was going to private doctors and not enough was being shipped to public health departments.

The criticism came from the CIO Women's League of New Jersey in an obvious appeal to the distaff voters.

The CIO's specialty for the ladies is the "family participation conference." Such parleys are aimed directly at the housewives. They have been run, or scheduled, in all sections of the land — from Maryland to the west coast, including way points like Louisiana next March, Texas next February and Michigan next January.

THESE FAMILY participation conferences are set up "to show housewives and women members how to reach other CIO women," says the Political Action Committee field representative, Esther Murray.

"Through those who participate we hope to interest and mobilize the women who must stay home with the children. Thus we try to face out from the union hall into the union homes of the workers and citizens we represent."

After Dec. 5, the AFL-CIO will represent an estimated 10 million homes.

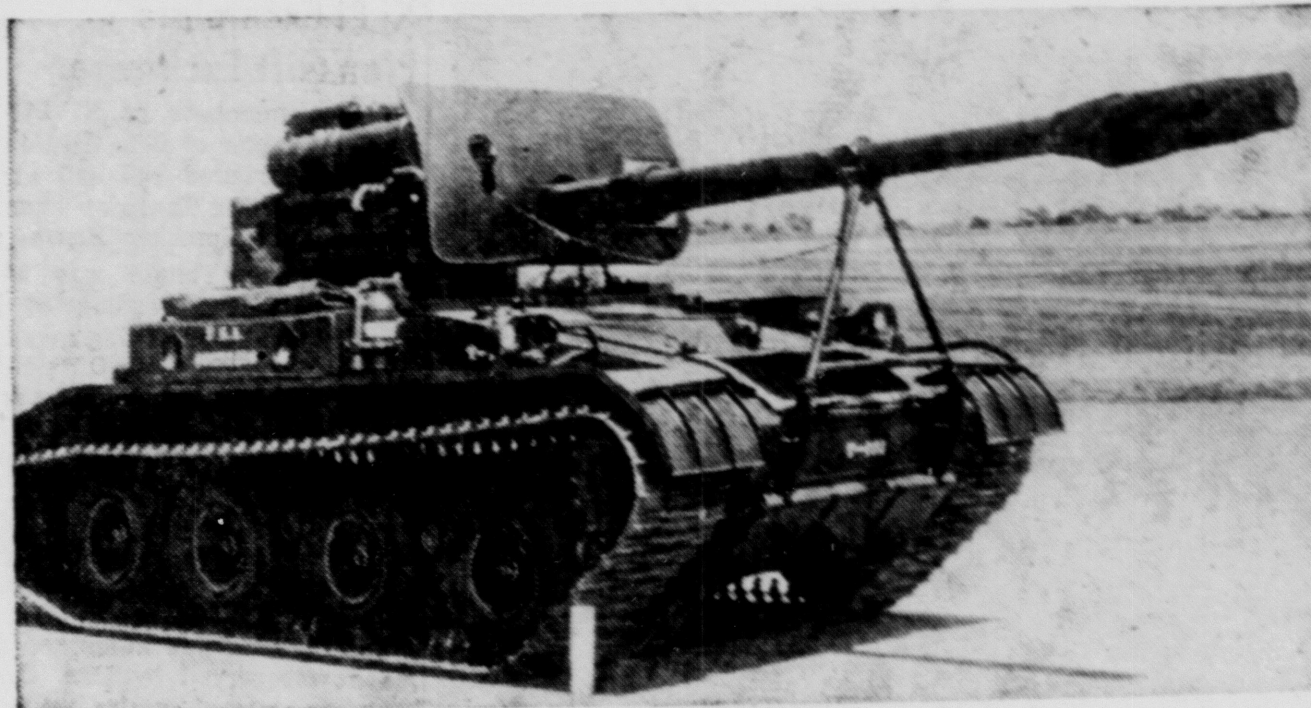

THE LABOR PEOPLE will try to get at the women voters in these homes through three groups. First, the women who are union members. Second, members of women's auxiliaries, consisting of those outside unions but related to duespayers. Third, any female member of the family who is not a member of either a union or auxiliary.

If labor can organize them, it will be the balance of power in '56, first in the primary fights for the nominations and then for the big stakes next November. Every day in '56 will be ladies' day for the politics. Just watch.

PUNCH WITH ITS OWN POWER—It looks like a tank, but it isn't. It's the just-unveiled T-101, a 90-mm. self-propelled gun. A powerful antitank weapon, it is light weight, enabling it to cross muddy, marshy or sandy terrain. It can also be air-dropped. Designed for use in the assault phase of airborne operations, the T-101 carries a three-man crew. Its armament is mounted above the hull without a turret. Sigma Delta Chi Secretary Indicted
CLEVELAND (AP) — The grand jury returned an indictment yesterday against Arman L. Merriam in the embezzlement of $3,748 from the treasury of the local chapter of Sigma Delta Chi, national journalism fraternity.

Investigators said Merriam, 62-year-old former secretary-treasurer of the chapter, admitted taking the money and cited "financial difficulties" and illness in his family.

Japanese Premier Re-Elected To Office

TOKYO (AP)—Prime Minister Ichiro Hatoyama won overwhelming reelection today, formed a new right of center administration with his newly merged Liberal-Democrats and immediately announced a long-range program.

Although the program hints at closer relations with Communist nations and perhaps at dropping some American occupation reforms, it is expected Hatoyama's new administration will in reality be even friendlier to the United States than his two previous governments since last December.

At his first press conference Hatoyama said he was determined to seek normal relations with the Soviet Union.

Hatoyama's conservatives have an overwhelming absolute majority, 299, but are still short of the 312-vote two-thirds majority needed to revise Japan's new postwar constitution, Hatoyama's aim.

Today's vote was a foregone conclusion after the Liberal and Democratic merger Nov. 15.

RUSSIA WAGES 'WAR BY RUBLE'—With ruble-loaded trade deals as springboards, Russia is trying to leap right over the military defense chain the West has set up along her southern borders facing the strategically critical Middle East. That's what Washington observers read into Moscow's current spurge of proposed trade, military and economic aid and deals with Egypt and other Arab states. Map shows graphically the danger for the West if Red's "ruble diplomacy" succeeds in checking the Baghdad defense pact. This pact links Turkey, Iraq, Iran and Pakistan to Europe's NATO chain. In addition, the Communists are not neglecting their old technique of stirring up troubled waters in which they can fish. Arming Arab League states could precipitate all-out Israeli-Arab warfare.

Success Story

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Today's success story:

One of Robert W. Sarnoff's hobbies is collecting dictionaries. And to him the most important word in any dictionary right now is the word "color."

At 37, Bob, son of Brig. Gen. David Sarnoff, head of the RCA communications empire, has risen to the post of executive vice president of the National Broadcasting Co.

The job wasn't handed to him on a platter. He worked his way up in the company, and had to take his lumps along the way.

To the younger Sarnoff has fallen many of the chores of supervising the spending of 12 million dollars within the next year in NBC's gigantic expansion of its color telecasting facilities. This will bring to more than 75 million the amount spent by RCA and NBC to promote color television.

"The 12 million is only a drop in the bucket to what NBC will spend on color TV in the next few years," said Bob. "We believe television will be an all-color industry in less than 10 years—and it could be a lot sooner than that."

Young Sarnoff doesn't regard color television as a gamble. He looks on video's rainbow future as a sure investment, an inevitable step that has to be taken.

He is impatient of critics who feel color is being rushed. "The mass production of color sets will put them within reach of the mass buying public," he said, adding:

"A 21-inch color set today is relatively no more expensive than a 10-inch black and white set was less than 10 years ago. There are already between 30,000 and 50,000 color sets in use, and one firm alone is now turning them out at the rate of 1,000 a week."

Color is only one of the headaches the young executive has to deal with. Across his busy desk pour the problems of hundreds of radio and TV network stations, the queries of sponsors, the complaints of high-priced stars.

"There are more phone calls in this business than in any other in the world," said Sarnoff, who sometimes feels it might be pleasant to spend a day all alone in a dark closet, completely away from Mr. Bell's invention.

Sarnoff believes that in another decade television will be even more important than it is now.

"It will have become the actual fountainhead of most creative effort in America," he predicted. "Operas are already coming out of it. Movies and plays will spring from it, too. It will create the stars of tomorrow as it already is creating new writers."

"In another 10 years live international TV will become commonplace. This should cut down much misunderstanding between nations, as people really see first hand how the peoples of other lands live."

Television mushroomed in a few short years into a billion-dollar-a-year industry. It still is growing so rapidly its executives find difficulty keeping up with it.

"Programs have to be set up six to eight months ahead," said Sarnoff, "and one of the biggest problems is how to get rid of your daily tasks so you can find time to sit down and plan what must be done next."

How does a television executive relax from the endless high pressure he is under, pressure he sometimes wonders how he can take and still survive?

"Well, I keep tropical goldfish," said Sarnoff, smiling. "They're fascinating. At the end of the day I like to go home and watch them. They seem so free."

Relaxes Mail Rules On Personal Messages

WASHINGTON (AP)—Just in time for Christmas, the Post Office Department is relaxing its rules to permit inclusion of personal messages in packages and second-class mail. But you still have to pay the extra postage.

Heretofore putting a letter inside a package made the sender liable to as much as a $100 fine. The new arrangement is effective Monday.

All that's necessary is to note on the outside of the package that a letter is enclosed and put an additional stamp on the package.

Half its Horsepower is for Safety!

A pretty steep hill, you'd say?

Well, not so far as this gentleman is concerned. He just gave the accelerator a little encouragement with his toe... and swept from bottom to top so effortlessly he was scarcely aware of it.

For he's at the wheel of a beautiful new 1956 Cadillac. And beneath that long, sleek, graceful hood rests the smoothest, most powerful engine in Cadillac history.

The fact is that this great new Cadillac engine is powerful and dynamic far beyond the requirements of normal usage. In the course of ordinary motoring, it is entirely possible that the driver will never have to put the accelerator down to the floor board.

But how wonderful that extra length of throttle will be if he does need it!

It will be there to give him that extra burst of speed that can carry him free from a difficult driving situation.

It will be there in case he needs it for safety in passing... or to answer the challenge of a mountain road.

And even when not in active use, it will add to his motoring pleasure.

It will bring him confidence and contentment and peace of mind...

...and it will provide the kind of operating economy and dependability that can come only from a motor car that literally loafs at the legal limits of the highway.

Of course, Cadillac's magnificent performance is only part of the exciting Cadillac story for 1956. There is inspiring beauty... and extraordinary luxury... and superlative craftsmanship. For this is, literally, the Cadillac of Cadillacs.

Why not stop in soon and let us show you what we mean?

We've got the keys and the car—all you have to provide is an hour of your time.

We can promise you... it will be the most revealing sixty minutes you ever spent at the wheel of a motor car.

U. S. Refinancing Plans Face Delay

Tightening Of Money Market Given As Cause

WASHINGTON (AP)—A tightening of the money market after the Federal Reserve Board's severe crackdown last week on credit expansion may delay briefly announcement of plans for a 12-billion-dollar refinancing of government securities.

This was indicated today as the interest rate on 91-day Treasury bills, by which the government borrows to meet its short-term needs, bounded upward to the highest level in 22 years.

In the light of the money scarcity that development evidenced, it was learned, the Treasury is taking another look at tentative plans to announce within the next few days a program for refinancing government securities maturing Dec. 15.

The announcement now may be delayed a short time, one source said, to let the money market settle down from the effects of the reserve board action.

It also appeared unlikely that the Treasury would borrow any new money—in addition to the refinancing—at this time.

Increased tax receipts may have eliminated any immediate need for further new borrowing.

The Treasury's bill rate — the rate of interest it pays for 91-day borrowing — climbed steeply this week to 2.440 per cent. This exceeded the 2.416 per cent the Treasury paid in June 1953 during the stringent credit shortage of that year, and was the highest bill rate since the historic high of 4.259 per cent in the money drought of March 1933.

The bill rate is generally regarded as the quickest reflector of money availability. There are 13 issues of bills, each amounting to about $1,600,000,000. One issue matures each week, and a new issue is floated in its place. The bill rate is set by offers from the money market where each weekly issue is auctioned by the Treasury.

The size, frequency and manner of handling the bill offerings make the bill rate a sensitive barometer of money conditions. The bill rate rises quickly to reflect credit shortages, and falls rapidly when there is plenty of money and credit available.

This week the bill rate rose by nearly two tenths of a point, an unusually large jump from one week to another. This development followed the turn-around by the Federal Reserve Board last week. The board approved, effective last Friday, the start of a fourth round of increases (from 2 1/4 to 2 1/2 per cent) by the reserve banks in their discount rate—the interest rate at which reserve banks lend to their member commercial banks.

In addition to reserve board last week resumed open market sale of government securities it owns. Such sales pull money out of commercial banks and immobilize it in the reserve banks.

Both actions tend to make credit scarcer, and therefore more expensive.

internal affairs; Tsereteli, former deputy commissar of internal security; Stavitsky and Khazani, former prosecutors.

The sixth man, who may also have been executed, was identified only as Riarni.

The broadcast said two other former prosecutors got prison sentences. One of them, Paramanov, got 25 years. Another, Nadaraia, also was sentenced but faulty reception made the length of his term unclear.

The Tiflis radio said the men were convicted by a military tribunal—such as tried Beria—in September on charges of high treason, terrorist activity, and taking part in counter-revolutionary work. They appealed to the Soviet Supreme Court, which dismissed the appeals, and the "sentences have been carried out," the broadcast said.

Treason executions in Russia are always carried out by shooting.

Georgia, birthplace of Beria and Stalin, has a population of about 3,600,000. Many of the people are descendants of fierce mountain tribesmen who fought the Communists fiercely in the civil war that followed World War I and the Bolshevik revolution.

She said they met in New York several years ago.

They attended the World Series together in New York last September, she said. Later Miss Shedd attempted to break off the romance, she said.

Graddon said officers found two unfinished love letters in Clendenin's briefcase, tucked in a book which had nestled against the revolver.

Addressed to "Dear Sally," they said, in part:

"You are probably right that I am not the right man for you. Please try to understand. I love you."

In an adjoining room Dr. John M. Prutting, her physician, waited and occasionally was called to help her regain control in fits of weeping.

It was the third time police had questioned her.

They first got her story several hours after she shot her 35-year-old sportsman husband, owner of the racehorse Nashua. The second questioning came several days later at the hospital. After that, police said they would wait until she left the hospital before seeing her again.

Says She Saw Abbott Beating Girl In Car

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP)—An Oakland housewife pointed a finger at Burton W. Abbott and said flatly he was the man she saw beating a young girl in a car the day Stephanie Bryan disappeared last April 28.

Mrs. Reve Leidecker was a surprise witness who volunteered information to the Berkeley, Calif., police since Abbott's trial started Nov. 7.

She was the first witness to identify Abbott without qualification.

Several witnesses have testified they saw a man strike a girl in a car on April 28.

The incident took place on highway 24 a few miles east of Berkeley about 15 minutes after Stephanie Bryan disappeared. Abbott, 27-year-old accounting student at the University of California, is accused of kidnapping her, murdering her and burying her body near his family's fishing cabin 275 miles north in Trinity County.

Mrs. Leidecker has a 14-year-old daughter, the same age as Stephanie, and is the wife of a former variety store operator.

She testified she saw the face of the man beating the girl. That "his expression was angry," and his forehead glistening as "it had perspiration on it."

She said a picture of Stephanie Bryan looked like the girl in the car.

Mrs. Leidecker said she had phoned Berkeley police at 4 a.m. last Thursday after reading Oakland's opening statement. She said she picked Abbott out of a lineup Sunday seven months after she saw the man in the car and "in all fairness to Mr. Abbott" took a second look at him when he was in a position like that in the car.

"That's the man," she said firmly, and stuck to it through defense cross examination.

Under questioning by defense attorney Stanley Whitney her descriptions of some portions of the car fight differed from testimony of earlier prosecution witnesses.

Seek More Office Space For County School Supt.

LISBON — Members of the Columbiana County Board of Education met with the county commissioners Monday in the Courthouse and asked for more office space for the superintendent's office to house additional personnel.

The county commissioners are required by law to provide office space for the county superintendent.

Superintendent James L. McBride said today about 4 or five additional supervisors and special teachers would be added to his office staff.

One or two will be added next year.

Under a recent state law, the county office, located in the Courthouse basement, is entitled to one supervisor, for the first 50 teachers and one for every 100 additional teachers.

The county has 218 teachers in its system.

This would allow the county rural system at least two supervisors.

The county is also allowed one special teacher for each district having less than eight teachers, McBride said.

There are three such systems in the county—Franklin, Wayne and Negley.

McBride said an exempted village with 30 teachers and a city "have indicated a willingness" to pool their teaching staffs for the sake of adding additional supervisors.

Motorist, 19, Cited After Lisbon Rd. Crash

A 19-year-old Wellsville man was cited by state highway patrolmen for failing to yield the right of way after his car was involved in a two-car collision on the Lisbon Rd., four miles south of Salem, at 3:45 p.m. Monday.

Patrolmen said Jay Taggart, 19, of Wellsville, drove his eastbound car out of County Rd. 411 into the side of an auto being driven north on Route 45 by Frank Entriken, 76, of RD 5, Lisbon, causing minor damage to both vehicles.

Two Drivers Forfeit Bonds In Lisbon Court

LISBON — Two motorists forfeited $20 appearance bonds each at hearings Monday before Mayor Wilbur Warren for traffic violations.

Forfeiting the bonds were Lawrence Reed, 21, of Ekins, W. Va., cited Sunday on N. Market St. for speeding; and Arthur Stone of Akron, arrested Monday on the same street for speeding.

The cases of William L. Johnson of Mount Morris, Pa., and Gerald R. Sullenberger, both cited Sunday by village police on N. Market St. for speeding, were dismissed by the mayor when the arresting officer failed to appear for the hearing.

Earl Hartley of Lisbon, cited Monday by police for crashing a stop sign on N. Beaver St. was fined $10 and costs.

John Semian of Newell, arrested this morning on N. Market St. for speeding, is in jail. He was unable to post bond.

New Unrest Sweeps French Morocco

RABAT, Morocco (AP)—French reinforcements were reported on their way today toward the border of the Spanish zone of Morocco, to put down a new wave of nationalist unrest.

French Resident General Andre Dubois told reporters Monday night that he had sent the commander in chief to the spot and that all necessary measures would be taken.

Sultan Mohammed Ben Youssef issued a new appeal for calm.

But in Casablanca, nationalists sent out a strike call in protest after prison guards killed at least 3 and wounded 15 political prisoners in suppressing a mutiny. Unofficial reports said there were as many as 5 dead.

Shops were closing and building workers stayed off the job.

In the north, it was too early to tell if the incidents there foreshadowed a new armed rebellion, or if they are only part of a movement of unrest against local leaders who had opposed the Sultan before his return from exile.

Oklahoma Far Ahead In AP Poll Of College Grid Teams

Michigan State Is Runner-Up

Ohio State University Is In Sixth Place

By R. P. WATSON
The Associated Press

With only one week of the season remaining, Oklahoma has a firm grip on first place among the nation's college football powerhouses today and a good chance of repeating its 1950 national championship.

The Sooners, who boast the longest major college winning streak, 28 in a row, were so far ahead in the next-to-last Associated Press poll of the season that most interest centered on the battle for second place between Michigan State and Maryland.

Oklahoma was No. 1 on the ballot of 114 of the 209 sport writers and broadcasters, piling up a total of 1,889 points. Michigan State squeezed past Maryland into second place by a bare six points, 1,689 to 1,683. Points were awarded on the usual basis of 10 for first, 9 for second, etc.

The voters apparently were more impressed by States 33-0 rout of Marquette than by Maryland's performance in beating George Washington 19-0. Maryland, the early season leader, had been second and Michigan State third a week ago. Both teams have concluded their seasons, although Maryland will meet Oklahoma in the Orange Bowl and State will play UCLA, No. 4, in the Rose Bowl.

Oklahoma is expected to wrap up victory No. 29 and its second perfect season in a row against so-so Oklahoma A&M Saturday. Several other members of the top 10, notably Georgia Tech and Auburn, will be gunning for bowl bids as well as a higher spot in the rankings.

Tech, No. 9, goes against the University of Georgia and Auburn, a newcomer at No. 10, meets Alabama.

UCLA, which moved past Notre Dame after a workmanlike 17-7 victory over Southern California, also has concluded its schedule. The Irish, who had to battle to pull out a 17-14 win over Iowa, get a chance to grab the No. 4 position back this week against that same Southern California club.

Ohio State, the 1954 national champion, placed sixth behind Notre Dame after winding up its operations for the year with a 17-0 victory over Michigan.

Michigan, sixth a week ago, fell to the No. 12 spot and Ohio climbed three notches from ninth.

Texas Christian held seventh place while clinching a Cotton Bowl berth with a 35-0 drubbing of Rice, while Texas A&M continued at No. 8. The Aggies wind up against Texas Thursday and TCU will finish against Southern Methodist Saturday.

The leaders with first-place votes in parentheses:

1. Oklahoma (114)	1,889
2. Mich. State (39)	1,689
3. Maryland (35)	1,683
4. UCLA (6)	1,374
5. Notre Dame (3)	1,253
6. Ohio State (5)	1,025
7. TCU (3)	994
8. Texas A&M	531
9. Georgia Tech	369
10. Auburn	245

The Second 10:

11. Navy	219
12. Michigan	102
13. Pittsburgh (1)	90
14. Miami (Fla.) (2)	79
15. Mississippi	73
16. Miami (Ohio)	46
17. Stanford	29
18. Duke	23
19. Vanderbilt	18
20. Syracuse	16

Ellwood, Michael Named Ohio State Co-Captains

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The 1956 Ohio State football team will be co-captained by quarterback Frank Ellwood of Dover and end Bill Michael of Hamilton.

The selections were announced last night at the annual gridiron appreciation banquet at which Coach Woody Hayes said his All-America halfback, Howard Hopalong Cassidy, "hasn't played his last game for me yet."

Hayes said he will take Cassidy, and this year's co-captains, Ken Vargo and Francis Machinsky, to the East-West game at San Francisco, Dec. 31. Hayes will coach the East team.

The banquet was highlighted by a speech from Gov. Frank J. Lausche who said the "flourish accomplishments" of the Buckeye team has brought about more discussion of Ohio than anything else in the past decade.

Hayes called the OSU-Michigan contest last Saturday the "greatest game I have ever seen." He used the same adjective to describe Cassidy.

The "outstanding sophomore" trophy was presented by the Ohio State Journal Quarterback Club to right end Leo Brown of Portsmouth.

The Sigma Alpha Epsilon Trophy for outstanding play in Ohio's homecoming game with Northwestern went to right halfback Jim Roseboro.

LITTLE LEAGUE WINNERS—John Herman Jr., president of the Salem Little Leagues, presented trophies awarded at last night's banquet to winning teams in league and playoff action during the past Little League season. ## Salem, Lisbon May Renew Grid Rivalry

At a recent meeting here between representatives of Salem and Lisbon high schools, it was decided "that every effort should be made to renew the friendly grid rivalry between the two schools at the earliest possible date since both communities have expressed a desire to do so."

It was decided, however, that no game will be played between the schools in 1956, it was reported.

The discussion revealed that Lisbon preferred to play the last game of the season while Salem wanted to play the game at the opening or near the middle of the season.

Representatives of the board of education, administration and athletic departments were present at the meeting.

The two schools ended their traditional grid rivalry following the 1954 contest because they could not agree on a game date.

Kircher Fired As Coach At Washington State

PULLMAN, Wash. (AP)—Alton Kircher, a "nice guy" who couldn't win, was fired as football coach at Washington State College Monday night after four years of trying.

He had another season to go on a $12,500-a-year contract but WSC said it is buying him out and will take its time picking a successor. He had a poor 1-7-2 record this fall.

Kircher's two chief assistants, Dale Gentry and Mike Scarry, were also let out. Dan Stavely, the freshman coach, will stay on.

"I don't know what I'll do," Kircher said. "I don't even know whether I'll stick with coaching any more."

Even before the firing, there was a string of suggested replacements. They ranged from Ray Hobbs, coach of the unbeaten local high school team, to Johnny Lujack, former Notre Dame star.

Kircher got the job here in 1952 by popular demand when Foest Evashevski quit to go to Iowa. He was a man everybody liked but in four seasons he never had a winning team.

He came here as an assistant to Evashevski and was regarded as his chief strategist.

Aldom's Diner, runner-up; City Pony League Playoff, Aldom's Diner, and C. I. O. Local 3816 runner-up; Minor Little League, Knights of Columbus, Mounts Co. and Gordon Leather; and Hot Stove League Flodrigs Drug, and L.E.O.P. Local 42 runner-up.

Medals were awarded to Pony League Allstars and winners in the Little Leagues and Pony Leagues. Recognition pins were presented to Little League Allstars and to all managers and coaches. Special awards went to managers and coaches of winning teams in Little League and Pony Leagues during the regular season.

Special citations of merit were given by the Charles H. Carey Post 56 to various sponsors, persons and organizations that helped make this year's baseball program a success.

Citations were presented by Legion Commander Ernest Moser to the following:

Mullins, Eljer, Bliss C.I.O., Eljer C.I.O. 3816, Electric Furnace C.I.O., Fishers News Agency, Barnett's Restaurant, Mounts Co., D.A.V., I.B.O.P. Local 42, Mullins CIO, Knights of Columbus, Gordon Leather, Salem Concrete, Church Budget and Budget Press, Flodrigs Drug, Aldom's Diner, Firestone Electric, Salem Drive-in Theater, Wilm's Nursery, U.C.T., Sekely Tool and the Salem News.

President John Herman Jr. introduced the Little League officers. They are: Robert Whitehill, executive secretary; Wade Loop, treasurer; Hobart Butcher, vice president; Charles Mattevi, vice president; and James Feiler, Denny Ray, Vernon Isaacs, Richard Kilbreath, Clifford Whinnery and Ralph Mancuso, Legion committee. Gus Schuster, a new member of the official committee, also was introduced.

Herman spoke briefly regarding the League and gave the financial report for the year. He thanked all sponsors, managers, coaches, the Legion and officials for their fine work during the past year. Movies of games during the season were shown following the awards presentations.

Canton McKinley's Bulldogs Ohio's 1955 Grid Champions

E. Liverpool Almost Edges Massillon For Second Place

By FRITZ HOWELL

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—It's official now—Canton McKinley's high-scoring Bulldogs are the 1955 Ohio high school football champions.

Fifty-two sports writers participating today in the final Associated Press poll of the year named Coach Wade Watts' powerhouse the "Buckeye's best," and as a result the Bulldogs will receive the Rutgers University Football Hall of Fame Trophy emblematic of the championship.

The trophy and the championship are awarded the winner of the Associated Press poll.

Of the 52 voters, 33 representing newspapers and 19 radio or TV stations, 17 gave McKinley the first place nod. The other first place votes were distributed among 10 teams.

Massillon, in surrendering the championship it has held for seven straight years, did not get a single first place vote — but wound up second in the overall voting, 58 poll points back of the victors on the 10-9-8-etc voting basis. East Liverpool, with 10 straight victories, was third—another 20 points back.

Massillon, previously tied 12-12 by Mansfield, was jolted 13-7 by Canton McKinley in a snowstorm before 21,000 in a televised game Saturday. Two passes from center which soared over the head of the Massillon punter gave the Bulldogs their touchdowns—the Tigers having the best of it otherwise.

The Tigers actually gained stature in defeat. A week ago they were behind Canton McKinley 365 to 276 in poll points, a matter of 89, but they were behind only 58 in the final ratings, 359 to 301. The Bulldogs dropped six points and the Tigers gained 25 over last week.

East Liverpool made the big gain, jumping from 180 last week to 281 this time, almost enough to wrest the runner-up spot from Massillon. The brilliant Potters, who outscored Massillon by 103 points in 10 games, defeated Alliance 34-14 Friday night. Canton McKinley had defeated Alliance 30-6, and Massillon did it 22-6.

Fremont Ross, which had a tough time getting early season recognition, finished fourth with a fine 10-0 season after coming from behind to nip Portsmouth 28-20 last week. Mansfield, beaten by Hamilton and tied by Massillon, gained a notch to seventh with a neat 19-6 win over Springfield.

Columbus East clung to fifth, Toledo Devilbiss skidded from fourth to sixth, Youngstown East jumped one rung to eighth, and Upper Sandusky and Jackson tied for ninth, the latter dropping from seventh. All those teams were idle over the weekend, but Jackson and Toledo Devilbiss have Thanksgiving Day games on tap to round out their 10-game slates.

From here and there: Dayton Roosevelt, with a 7-1 record and 227 points scored to 74 for the foe, received one first place vote in the poll and could have moved into ninth place from 11th with one more. . . . Hamilton's Big Blue, only team to beat Mansfield, got two first place votes for its fine 9-1 season under Chuck Thackara. The Mansfield win over Springfield sent those clubs into a tie with Hamilton for the Greater Ohio League crown, Springfield handing the Big Blue its lone defeat as all three ended with a 4-1 loop record.

In two previous seasons Coach Bob Gibson of East Liverpool had won only 6 of 20 games, but he hit the jackpot with 10 straight this year and they're booming him for coach of the year. Among others mentioned in that race are Jim Robinson of Canton Lehman, Wade Watts of Canton McKinley, Mal Mackey of Fremont Ross, and Ralph Webster of Columbus East.

Ironton's Tigers, coached by personable Jim Mains, finished with a 7-2 season—the best in years. Portsmouth and Lancaster were among the victims, and the feats of end A. J. Sexton, Jr., and tackle Jack Stowers, a nifty 190-pounder, were largely responsible.

Coach Mel Knowlton of Alliance, the 1954 "Coach of the Year" who has seen all of 'em, says "East Liverpool's Jim Potts, Gene Bell, Jack Nott and Ralph Perkins are the best set of backs I've seen all year."

Bill Snyder of Belpre, with 134 points on 23 touchdowns and 16 extra points, looks like the state scoring leader. Joe Prest, 155-pound junior quarterback for Steubenville Central, tossed his 16th touchdown pass of the season in the 27-6 win over Bellaire St. Johns. The southpaw threw 15 six-pointers as a sophomore. Steubenville high finished by knocking Weirton, W. Va., its over-the-river rival, from the unbeaten ranks 39-20 for a 4-5-1 season.

Don Tuel, Sebring McKinley quarterback, has thrown 14 touch down passes, scored six others. . . . Fremont Ross, in chalking up the school's first unbeaten-untied campaign, had a real one-two punch in fullback Haldon Black and halfback Jim Tiller. Each scored 15 touchdowns, and between them they had 183 of the 221 points scored by Ross.

You hear a lot about those "big" Canton and Massillon teams, but they're not that big. Canon McKinley's starting line averaged 174 and the backfield 179 against Massillon. The Tigers offered a 175-pound line, and a pony backfield which averaged 150 — with 135-pound quarterback Johnny James being voted the Tiger standout.

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Bill Virdon, a top rookie of the year candidate in the National League, is the first member of the St. Louis Cardinals to come to terms for 1956.

Terms were not disclosed, but the West Plains, Mo., outfielder reportedly received about $10,000 in the contract signed Monday, a sizeable increase over his rookie salary. Virdon hit .281 last year.

International Hockey League Race Is Tight

By The Associated Press
The race is so tight in the International Hockey League that three of the six teams are jammed together in a tie for third place today.

Fort Wayne, Grand Rapids and Toledo-Marion own seven victories apiece.

Toledo-Marion advanced to the tie with two victories in three outings last week. But Coach Butch Stahan was far from satisfied.

"I can't understand the inconsistency of this team," he said. "They look like a first-place team one game and a last-place club the next game."

His Mercurys edged Grand Rapids and Indianapolis by one point and were trimmed by Troy by one goal.

The Cincinnati Mohawks broke away from a month-long tie for second place with Fort Wayne by trimming the Komets 5-3.

Troy spread its first place advantage to four full games, but had to struggle for its pair of triumphs.

OSU, Mich. State Each Place Three On All-Big 10 Team

CHICAGO (AP)—Ohio State's Big Ten champions and Michigan State's Rose-Bowl-bound Spartans each placed three men on the Associated Press All-Big Ten football team for 1955.

Michigan's Wolverines, losing out to Ohio State for the Western Conference title, placed two men on the squad while Illinois, Purdue and Iowa grabbed off one spot each.

The team chosen by AP staffers in the Big Ten area consists of seven seniors, three juniors and one sophomore.

Fabulous Howard Cassady, Ohio State's All-America halfback, was the only unanimous choice on the first team while center Ken Vargo, Cassady's teammate, missed the honor by one vote. Ohio State's other selection was Jim Parker, 242-pound guard.

Michigan State's selections were guard Carl Nystrom, tackle Norm Masters and quarterback Earl Morrall.

Michigan's two great ends, Tom Maentz and Ron Kramer, were named to the squad rounded out by Purdue fullback Bill Murakowski, Iowa guard Cal Jones and Illinois sophomore halfback Bob Mitchell.

Mitchell barely edged out another sophomore, Michigan State's Walt Kowalczyk, for the honor.

The Illini seatback, a reserve most of the season, put on a furious finish to make the team.

A 20-year-old from Hot Springs, Ark., Mitchell turned the tide in Illinois' 25-6 upset over Michigan in the following week. Mitchell gained 118 yards against Wisconsin and finished the season with 107 yards against Northwestern.

While the backfield has speed in Cassady and Mitchell, power in Murakowski, and plenty of savvy and poise in Morrall, the team's real strength is found in the line. Kramer and Maentz are considered two of the best ends in the country both on offense and defense.

Jones, being named to the AP All-Conference team for the third straight year, was shifted to tackle and was Iowa's mainstay despite a leg injury. In the only game Jones missed completely, the Hawkeyes were trampled by UCLA 33-13.

At the other tackle, "Stormin' Norman" Masters was one of the big factors that kept Michigan State in the running for national honors.

Vargo, Parker and Nystrom make up the important center of the line giving the team offensive speed and an almost impregnable defense.

Blaik Thinks Army Team Tops Navy's

By ED CORRIGAN
WEST POINT, N.Y. (AP)—Army Football Coach Earl Black, who has spent almost as much time ministering to his athletes in the hospital as on the field, announced today that:

1. Army has a better defensive team than Navy.
2. He doesn't think Army will be invited to a bowl game.
3. "This has been a trying season."

Blaik leads his three-times-beaten forces to Philadelphia Saturday to play once-defeated, once-tied Navy in the 56th meeting of the service schools. Navy is a slight favorite.

"I think we've got a better defensive team than Navy," said Blaik before sending his cadets through a real two-fisted workout, "and I'll be surprised if we don't show it Saturday."

"I know Navy is even more dangerous than last year (the Middles won that one (27-20) because their passing has improved, but they'll have to touch all the bases to beat us."

Blaik apparently is in no position to say what action Army would take on a postseason game if the Cadets lick Navy. While nothing official has been said, there doesn't seem to be much doubt that either the Sugar or Cotton Bowl would like the winner.

Army prohibits postseason play, but Navy broke its rule against bowl games last New Year's when it played Mississippi in the Sugar Bowl.

"We've lost three games," said Blaik, "and I don't think anyone would consider us. Would we like to play one more game after Navy? One more game of what? This has been a very trying season."

Right now, Army is in about as good shape as it has been all season.

"With one thing and another," said Blaik, "we never have been able to put a backfield together that we could call our own even though Pat Uebel has played well all season and Don Hollender, to my mind, has done remarkably well."

Howe seeks recapture of Scoring Trophy

MONTREAL (AP)—Gordie Howe of the Detroit Red Wings is making his move to recapture the National Hockey League's Art Ross trophy for scoring.

Howe, who had won the trophy four straight years from 1950-1954, moved into third place last week by tallying four goals and one assist for 20 points on 10 goals and 10 assists.

Jean Beliveau, center for the league-leading Montreal Canadiens, moved into second spot with 22 points.

The league's leading playmaker, Bert Olmstead of the Canadiens, moved into second spot with 22 points.

That will be decided, he said, after the four Southeastern Conference teams play their final games Saturday.

If Pitt's substitute fullback Bob Grier is sent into the game by Coach Johnny Michelson, he will be the first Negro to play in the Sugar Bowl.

Digby said the invitation to Pitt was made "without conditions."

The Panthers closed their season last Saturday with a convincing 20-0 victory over Penn State. Pitt conquerors include Oklahoma, No. 1 team in the nation, Navy, No. 11, and Miami of Florida, No. 14.

Pitt's victims have been California, Syracuse, Nebraska, Duke, Virginia, West Virginia and Penn State.

Smith Named Indians 'Man Of The Year'

CLEVELAND (AP)—Cleveland baseball writers yesterday picked outfielder Al Smith as the Cleveland Indians "Man of the Year."

Relief hurler Ray Narleski also was considered for the award for his 9-1 record, his 20-odd games saved and his 59 relief appearances.

But Smith won the nod because in addition to his fine offensive and defensive contributions, he appeared in every game and played six different positions in the infield and outfield.

Smith led the team with a .306 batting average, 186 hits, 27 doubles and 10 stolen bases. He scored more runs, 123, than any other player in the American League.

North Carolina Grange Outshines All Others

CLEVELAND (AP)—A little two-store town in North Carolina has a Grange that outshines 4,212 other local Granges throughout the country.

The Old Richmond Grange of Tobaccoville, a town of 100 copped the $10,000 first prize yesterday in the 1955 community service contest, sponsored jointly by the National Grange and the Sears-Roebuck Foundation.

A check for that amount was given Eugene F. Strupe, master of Old Richmond Grange in a ceremony at the 89th annual meeting of the National Grange.

Of the town's 100 residents, 66 belong to the local, which was cited for rescuing a community that was in danger of disappearing into the tobacco fields by almost literally falling apart.

Fourth prize of $2,000 went to Aetna Grange, Delia, Ohio.

Truck Kills Man

STEUBENVILLE, Ohio (AP)—Andrew McManus, 55, was killed Monday when he walked into the side of a runaway truck in Market St., Steubenville's main thoroughfare.

The truck, loaded with beer, was going down an incline out of control after an axle had broken about a block away. It came to a stop when a rear wheel fell off after it had sideswiped six parked cars. Clark Anderson, 34, the truck driver, and his helper, Louis Huber, 24, escaped injury.

Mentioned As A Compromise Presidential Candidate

Southern Democrats Look Longingly At Ohio's Governor Frank J. Lausche

COLUMBUS —(NEA) — A tall, broad-shouldered figure, topped with a bush of curly dark hair, is familiar to every town and city in Ohio.

It belongs to Frank J. Lausche, the man who's serving an unprecedented fifth term as governor.

As he strides at a near lope along the street these days, they are looking at him with new interest. For, as the Democratic presidential convention approaches, his name is mentioned increasingly as a possible compromise candidate.

Started by Georgia Sen. Richard B. Russell, this fresh of speculation comes largely from the South. There, the conservative elements of the party hunt unceasingly for a Democratic presidential candidate to walk the middle-of-the-road rather than the left-hand rut. If they have one it increases their bargaining power, at the very least.

A NUMBER OF THEM think Frank Lausche — that's pronounced Low (as in how)-she — could be the man.

Ohioans have indicated forcefully since 1945 that independent Lausche is the man for them.

Ohio is a Republican stronghold. Yet in 1952, while Stevenson was losing the state by a half-million votes, Lausche won by 425,052.

What is this appeal to both Democrats and Republicans? Perhaps it's his energy. In a car he absent-mindedly prods the driver like a farmer hustling the haywagon horses when rain's a-coming.

"Let's go, let's go. Why are we stopping here?"

"It's a red light," the driver patiently explains.

PERHAPS IT'S HIS honesty. Everyone knows he has little interest in money. He's have difficulty scraping up the down payment on a house if he went back into law, his friends say.

His pretty wife, Jane, can't get him to take time to buy a suit. She brings them home and tries them on a houseman her husband's size.

Everyone knows he's an early riser, like Truman. But his walks are in the afternoon. In the dawn he dictates letters into a machine.

He has his friends worried about his flying. His pilot dashes him over the state in a single-engine National Guard plane. There's a toothbrush sticking from his breast pocket and his shoes are traditionally untied. Only icing conditions will keep him down or get him on the commercial liners.

IT'S A CINCH that Lausche can be re-elected governor about as long as he wants to run. It would be surprising if he couldn't defeat Sen. George H. Bender in the senate race next fall. He's riding this southern boomlet for President. Pairing him as Stevenson's running mate would be illogical, but he might be in line if Averell Harriman were nominated. New York and Ohio make geographical sense.

With this plateful of goodies before him, what does Lausche say? "I've been astonished by the wisdom of the circulation which has been given over the country to views similar to those expressed by Senator Russell. But I have no ambition of any character whatever for any national office."

In reply to a flood of letters, he currently refers to "dreams of friendly persons."

TO ONE HE SAID in typical lush Lausche prose: "They will soon, unless I am careful, have me looking up at the stars above while I am stumbling across pools which lie beneath my feet."

There's no point in his politicking just now. But whatever his decision, it will have to come by Feb. 8, Ohio's filing deadline.

There's little doubt that he'll have delegates on the ballot to make him favorite son. To go to the convention as a sure-shot candidate for governor, controlling the state delegation, would give him his strongest national potential, dopesters think.

As an indication as to how he stands with what is left of Ohio's

Democratic machine, here's his comment on entering as favorite son, a role he refused in 1954:

"I will not have the Ohio delegation controlled by machine bosses whose sole purpose is spoils and patronage even if I have to be a candidate myself."

For it's a big part of the Lausche story that he's climbed to his position strictly on his own.

They call him a lone wolf. They charge he isn't a "team player" and that he appoints as many Republicans as Democrats to jobs. Some comment by Democratic precinct workers won't bear repeating.

But based purely on his actions, Lausche appears to be a politician who never got over being a judge. He had a brilliant career on the Cleveland bench.

Son of naturalized Slovenian parents, he was born in Cleveland. At 12 he became breadwinner for the family. His first job was a lamp lighter for the city. For a while he played third base on minor league ball teams.

HE GOT INTO POLITICS with an appointment to a municipal judgeship. From popular judge he became Cleveland's mayor. This led to the governorship.

His harassment of the state's gamblers, the endless battle for his struggle to keep taxes down and spend wisely all stem from his early career — both his precarious life and his experiences with the seamy side learned in the court room.

Then, as an afterthought, "You'll notice that many of our cities have Democratic mayors now when once we could seldom elect one."

He gave Democratic politicians their biggest shock in 1950. Indicating he might vote for Senator Taft's re-election, he left his own party's Joseph T. Ferguson high and dry.

It is strange that Lausche's early support comes from the South since he's a Catholic, though his wife is a Protestant. It was the South that sent Catholic Al Smith to complete defeat in 1928.

"In my early campaigns," says Lausche on this point, "the ma-

"MURDERERS"—Actor Bela Lugosi, creator of the role of Dracula, is shown as he appeared as a voluntary witness in Los Angeles before a committee investigating narcotics traffic. Lugosi, who underwent a cure last year for narcotics addiction, told the committee "dope peddlers are murderers of civilization even if they are dressed as angels."

chine politicians who opposed me used religion as an issue. With each succeeding campaign, there was less emphasis until it has practically disappeared."

But it remains the big question mark on the governor's political balance sheet.

If golf is a political asset, Lausche has a bagful. His athletic background shows itself in his game. Just 60 in November, he has almost never been sick. His last examination showed him sound of wind, limb and heart.

He has a larruping drive and shoots in the mid-70's. His golf genius is in studying a green. The judge again, he hems and haws searching the evidence, then steps up and taps the ball in faultlessly.

Two Soviet Leaders On Tour Of India

NEW DELHI, India (P)—The Soviet Union's two top leaders launched today into a 10-day 5,000-mile swing around India. Their Indian hosts promised the Kremlin bigwigs a new democracy in action.

The first stop for Soviet Premier Bulganin and Communist party boss Nikita S. Khrushchev was the vast Bhakra-Nangal power-irrigation project in the Himalayan foothills 150 miles north of the capital. The 327-million-dollar program is being built with Indian money but is employing some 60 American technical advisers.

As the Russians left New Delhi, most diplomatic observers felt four-day stay in the capital had been definitely triumphant. There was some criticism, however, of the bitter attacks Bulganin and Khrushchev launched at the West in their speeches to the Indian Parliament Monday. Some Indians thought the Parliament of a country proclaiming nonalignment in the cold war wasn't the place for a blast from one side at the other.

Prime Minister Nehru served notice on his Kremlin guests at a state banquet Sunday night that he does not intend to let them woo India from its policy of neutrality. He said his country is "in no camp and no military alliance" and seeks only the camp of "peace and good will."

CATHOLIC BISHOP DIES

WHITBY, England (P)—Britain's oldest Roman Catholic bishop, Archbishop Thomas Shine, died early today of pneumonia. He was 83. Last February Pope Pius XII conferred the personal title of archbishop on him in recognition of his long service to the church.

TWO CARS KILL MAN

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (P)—Two cars struck and killed George Agey, 92, as he crossed U. S. 68, in front of his home north of here last night.
